Glossodia Community Centre. North Richmond Community Centre

We offer a holistic approach with our services, providing a place of acceptance and belonging with a supportive group of all abilities.

Tae-kwon-do martial arts

We are a Traditional ITF certified Tae Kwon Do family school, catering for all abilities including NDIS participants. All our instructors are accredited by the T.I.T.F and Martial Arts Australia (MAA), police and working with children checked, and have current first aid certificates. Our instructors and support workers are fully qualified or have extensive experience with disabilities and the elderly.

Disability support services

You do not need to do Taekwondo classes to access our services.
